

The 17th Japan International MANGA Award

Guidelines for Application

1. Purpose
To spread MANGA culture overseas and promote international cultural exchanges through MANGA.
2. Award
  - (1) The Gold Award of the Japan International MANGA Award will be given to the best MANGA work, the Silver Award to three excellent works, and the Bronze Award to other eleven works.
  - (2) The Special Encouragement Award may be given to a manga work that does not qualify for the Gold Award or Silver Award, but is more highly regarded than the other Bronze Award entries.
  - (3) Gold Award and Silver Award winners will be invited to Japan for approximately 7days for the award ceremony as an additional prize (Special Encouragement Award and Bronze Award winners are not eligible).
3. Conditions of Entry
  - (1) Eligible MANGA works must consist of more than 16 pages. Both published and unpublished works are eligible to apply, with the exception of works that have won previous Japan International MANGA Awards.
  - (2) Eligible MANGA works should have been created within the past three years (2020-2023) from the date of application.
  - (3) Eligible MANGA works must be submitted in electronic form (PDF) or printed form (works submitted in electronic form will be printed for selection procedures).
  - (4) Publishing companies outside Japan may apply for the Japan International MANGA Award if the copyright holder of the MANGA work agrees to the application.
  - (5) Either the comic artist or the story writer of the submitted work must be a foreign national. The representative who will participate in the invitation program for the Gold / Silver Award winners must also be a foreign national as well.
  - (6) Only one entry per comic artist will be accepted. In the case of multiple entries, only the first entry will be accepted.
  - (7) The organizer may use some of the winning entries to promote the Japan International MANGA Award both in Japan and abroad.

- Eligible MANGA works that have been submitted in electronic form will be printed for the selection procedure. Please ensure that the submitted work can be printed on A4 paper. In particular, for vertically scrolling works or webtoons, submit data that has been adjusted by separating the frames so that the image can be printed at the appropriate size.

- Page numbers must be indicated on every page of the work.

- If the work is not in the form of a book, it must be indicated clearly if there is a specific two-page spread in the work.

- Although the form of the submission will not affect the results of the selection, applicants are encouraged to choose the option c) if possible. When Japanese Embassies or Consulates in the country or region where you reside specify the form of submission, applicants are advised to follow it.

- Additional copies may be requested for works being considered for an award.

- Manga works in any language are acceptable.

5. Return of Works

The submitted works will not be returned to applicants. Therefore, if the work has not yet been published, it is advisable to submit duplicate copies of the work and keep the original. The submitted works might be donated or exhibited.

6. Selection

After the first round of screening by the Association of Japanese Manga Publishers, the 17th Japan international MANGA Award Selection Committee will be responsible for the selection procedures.

7. Award Ceremony

The award ceremony is planned to be held in Tokyo in February 2024.
